

LETTER

FROM

WILLIAM GREER,

PROPOSING

To execute the printing of the Senate for the 29th Congress.

DECEMBER 15, 1845.

Read, and ordered to lie on the table, and be printed.

To the honorable the Senate of the United States :

The undersigned, being a practical printer, and carrying on the business of printing in the city of Washington, D. C., hereby respectfully offers to execute, in a neat, correct and workmanlike manner, all printing that may be required by the honorable Senate during the twenty-ninth Congress, at twenty-five per cent. less than the prices heretofore paid ; that is, twenty-five per cent. below the prices fixed by the resolution of 1819.

The work shall be done on good paper, with entire new materials, and shall not be inferior in any respect to the work heretofore done for the honorable Senate. He therefore respectfully asks the favor of being elected printer for your honorable body.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

WM. GREER.

OFFICE, ON 9TH STREET, NEAR GENERAL POST OFFICE,
December 13, 1845.
